

The Spirit of Xmas Strikes East Berlin

BERLIN (AP) — Tough Communist border guards have been brimming with unexpected Christmas spirit the last three days as they watched West Berliners file into East Berlin for tearful reunions with relatives.

"We're human too," said one guard, explaining relaxations of several border restrictions.

Today the guards at the Oberbaum Bridge suddenly raised the barrier an hour ahead of schedule at 6 a.m. to allow about 50 West Berliners to get a head start on their visits.

Many of the West Berliners have not seen their relatives since the hated Berlin wall went up 28 months ago.

To the West Berliners, the guards have represented symbols of hatred. Friends have been machinegunned to death by the guards as they tried to escape from the Communist sector into West Berlin.

Since Thursday when West Berliners were allowed across for visits, the guards have shown another attitude. Some have even allowed smiles to crease their usually so member faces.

West Berlin authorities were surprised when the Communists allowed a small group of West Berliners to cross Thursday, a full day ahead of the original opening date for the reunions.

Friday the guards even allowed West Berliners to bring along their dogs. Until then, only East Berliners were allowed to bring pets into the city.

In East Berlin, main downtown areas were lit up like Christmas trees for the first time since the Communists occupied the sector 17 years ago. Even when Soviet Premier Khrushchev visited the city in January, the areas weren't half so bright.

"I'll bet you or your West Berlin friends never thought you'd see anything like this," a traffic policeman on Alexander Platz proudly told a Western reporter.

"If those West Berliners would only behave, they could come over here every day, by the thousands if they wanted to, to visit our city," he added, echoing the Communist line.

Car Hits Truck, Woman Killed

WALNUT RIDGE, Ark. (AP) — Viola Helms, 62, of Smithville (Lawrence County), was killed late Thursday when a three-quarter ton truck struck the car in which she was riding on state Highway 115.

State Trooper Bill Rose said the car was driven by her husband, Sherman Helms, 62, of Smithville, and the truck by Bill Riley, 28, also of Smithville.

Optimistic About Viet Nam War

By PETER ARNETT
SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara, winding up consultations on South Viet Nam's U.S.-backed war against Communist guerrillas, said today, "I am optimistic over progress to be made during the coming year."

McNamara and top American officials based in Viet Nam had an afternoon-long conference with the ruling junta, including chief of state Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh and Premier Nguyen Ngoc Tho.

The secretary, who had been given a somber briefing by U.S. officers on events since the Nov. 1 coup that overthrew President Ngo Dinh Diem, said Minh explained in detail the Vietnamese military plans for 1964.

McNamara said he made his flying 36-hour visit here from Paris "to discuss thoroughly the U.S. plans for providing support to Viet Nam." He gave no details.

He took off tonight for Honolulu, where he was to have a two-hour conference with Adm. Harry D. Felt, commander of U.S. forces in the Pacific. He then will return directly to Washington.

Weather

Cloudy to partly cloudy today and tonight. Outlook for Sunday — cloudy and cold with a chance of snow.

Said He Was Lost, Must Have Been

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The giant jet airliner roared down the runway at International Airport. Roaring in its wake, like a gnat chasing an elephant, came a Volkswagen sedan, Leo Ambrose O'Hearn at the controls.

Police said they ran the little auto to earth after a long chase. Asked how he got onto the runway without being seen, police said he replied: "I don't know, I'm lost. I guess I took the wrong turn."

He was booked on a charge of being drunk on airport property, a violation of municipal law.

New York Bracing for Snowstorm

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Western New York braced today for another round of wind-whipped snow squalls which crippled the snowbelt area near Buffalo Thursday in a biting cold.

The huge mass of arctic air which enveloped many areas in the eastern two-thirds of the nation again dropped temperatures to sub-zero from Montana to Maine and southward to Kentucky. Freezing weather for the second consecutive day spread into northern Florida and along parts of the Gulf Coast.

The pre-winter spell of cold and heavy snow—a week long in most of the Midwest — was blamed for at least 22 deaths. Temperatures in the snow-covered north central region included 25 below in International Falls, Minn., and ranged to a chilly 26 above in Tallahassee, Fla.

The winter season starts officially Sunday.

The last official reading from Watertown, N.Y., off Lake Ontario, was -19, and the mercury was still falling.

Thursday's blinding storms dumped more than a foot of snow in the Buffalo snowbelt area, forcing schools to close and choking off traffic for five hours on the state thruway spur running to the Pennsylvania line.

Swirling, drifting snow dropped visibility to zero on the superhighway. Hundreds of motorists were stranded along the road, while others groped perilously to service areas to wait out the storm's fury.

Another blast of icy air moved across the plains and headed into the lower Mississippi Valley.

Weather Bureau officials said no immediate general break in the unseasonable cold weather was indicated. However, they said temperatures were expected to moderate in parts of the Gulf region.

As the icy air dropped deep into the South, the mercury edged near freezing for the second straight morning in Tampa, Fla. It was 29 in Pensacola, Fla., 31 in Mobile, Ala., and near freezing in New Orleans.

Readings were more than 20 below zero in many sections of the Dakotas, Minnesota and Wisconsin and it was 15 below at O'Hare International Airport in Chicago. Chicago's 6 below was the eighth straight day of zero or below zero readings in December, an all-time record for the month.

State of the Union Talk on January 8

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson will deliver his State of the Union message to Congress in person Jan. 8, Democratic leaders from the Capitol reported today.

Talking with newsmen after their regular weekly breakfast session at the White House, the party chiefs said the present session of Congress will end Friday or Saturday of this week and the legislators will come back Jan. 7.

They said they still have to talk with the Republican leadership to determine the exact date of adjournment.

Speaker John W. McCormack of Massachusetts said the Democratic leadership still is hopeful and confident that a satisfactory foreign aid appropriation bill ultimately will be approved.

Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, Senate Democratic leader, said he reported to Johnson that the Senate Finance Committee is making good progress on the tax reduction bill.

PEACE MESSAGE — President Johnson's helicopter returns to the White House from Andrews AFB, Md., after the President returned from New York where he urged the U.N. to "walk the peace path" with the U.S. "Peace," he said, "is a journey of a thousand miles and must be taken one step at the time." The sign, foreground, hangs at the entrance to the Pageant of Peace on the Ellipse.

Sent to Pen for Safety Reasons

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — James Dean Walker, 22, of Reno, Nev., charged with first degree murder in the shooting of North Little Rock policeman Jerrell P. Vaughan, was ordered transferred from the state penitentiary to the Pulaski County Jail Thursday.

Walker was sent to the penitentiary Nov. 26 for safety reasons.

Harold L. Hall, Walker's attorney, petitioned the court Tuesday to return Walker to the county jail so they could confer for his defense. Walker is to be tried Jan. 27.

Ministers Agree on a Few Things

By JOHN P. GALE
LONDON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk and British Foreign Secretary Richard A. Butler agreed today on the need to continue Western probes for new agreements with the Soviet Union.

Rusk came to London for consultations with Butler following the North Atlantic Alliance ministerial meeting in Paris, which also proposed new but cautious steps to ease East-West tensions.

Rusk and Butler got through a dozen items on their agenda Wednesday night and today, informed sources said. They did not seek hard solutions but contented themselves with defining areas of agreement between London and Washington.

American sources said Rusk will leave for Washington feeling that his exchanges with Butler and Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home were useful in every respect.

Rusk and Butler analyzed in detail the German and Berlin problem and also reviewed conditions in Southeast Asia, Latin America and Africa—areas of recent activity by the Chinese Communists.

While the American's primary aim was to continue the search for a broad avenue of approach to Russia on solution of cold war problems, his first call of the day was on Commonwealth Secretary Duncan Sandys.

Informants said Sandys, during their one-hour talk, gave Rusk a full rundown on some of the explosive problems facing the Commonwealth.

These were said to include the future of British Guiana—which the United States fears could become a Communist flashpoint in South America—and Indonesian President Sukarno's militant opposition to the British-backed Malaysian Federation.

Stacked Jury Charge Brings Investigation

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Pulaski County Circuit Judge Guy Amsler ordered an investigation Thursday after two Memphis attorneys charged that a jury had been "stacked" against them.

The attorneys, Bernard M. Rosen and James O. Garner, made the charges in the judge's chambers before the start of a trial which resulted in a $20,000 judgment against their client, Amsler said.

The case grew out of an automobile accident in North Little Rock in 1961.

Credits Bingen With Early Introduction of Christmas Trees in This Community

By MARY ANITA LASETER

The blessed observance of Christmas has been carried on throughout the world for centuries, and the tradition of the Christmas tree is well-known to have had a German origin. We in Southwest Arkansas can probably thank our Christmas stars that one of our communities, Bingen, also had a German background, resulting in the early introduction of the Christmas tree here.

Bingen was supposed to have derived its name from the old German poem, "Bingen (pronounced Bin-Ghen) on the Rhine," and one of the first settlers there was Dr. J. R. Wolff, a German. Dr. Wolff owned a lot of property both in and around Bingen, and he played an important part in the development of the place. He operated a gin and grist mill and, later, one of the first flour mills in the territory.

During the late 1860's and the early '70's Bingen became well known for the Bingen Union Academy, one of the few co-educational schools of higher education in the county. A Mr. Howard was one of the early teachers, and Miss Hattie Prevince was the first teacher to put out report cards in the school.

That school mentioned was of the one-room variety, and whether it was red or not is unknown today. The water supply was a little spring where a dipper was kept hanging nearby. Each pupil had to bring a little cup and use the dipper to pour water into the cup.

3 Convicted in Death of an Airman

EVREUX, France (AP) — A U.S. Army court-martial convicted three American soldiers—two Negroes and a white—today in the death of an airman in a fight between soldiers and airmen at the Evreux Air Force Base.

The Negroes, Pvt. Richard L. Parker Jr. of Eckman, W. Va., and Pfc. Edward Spears of New York, were convicted of unpremeditated murder and assault.

They were to be sentenced later today.

Airman I.C. Robert Padgett of Woodlawn, Va., was fatally injured Sept. 6 after a group of soldiers invaded an airmen's barracks on the base.

The court was made up of five officers and three enlisted men.

Five Negro soldiers and Gernard were accused of taking part in the soldiers' attack on the Air Force barracks.

In a previous trial, Pfc. Raymond C. Bost Jr., of Pittsburgh, was convicted of unpremeditated murder and assault and sentenced to 15 years in prison. Pfc. Robert Burrell of Philadelphia was given 12 years on the same charges.

The trial of Pfc. Franklin D. Waddell of Philadelphia on a charge of unpremeditated murder was postponed indefinitely after his attorney requested a separate trial and another pre-trial investigation.

The first postmaster at Bingen was a Mr. Williams, and at one time Bingen boasted a hardware store, dry goods establishment, blacksmith shop, churches, the postoffice, and the mills and Academy all ready mentioned. For thirty years the Bingen Social Visitor was printed in that community. The following excerpt from it sounds rather familiar for this time of year, but it concerns activities prior to the 20th century.

"There will be a union Sunday School Christmas tree at the school house Monday night. Following are the committees:

"To Get Tree and Put It Up: Messrs. Sam Leslie, Andrew Cabiness, Gat Luck, Ernest Harris and Henry Reese.

"To Receive Presents: Misses Gertrude Ramage, Tura Gillum, and Sudie Hicks.

"To Decorate Tree: Messdames J. M. Daly and G. R. Goff; Misses Zippora Gillum, Ellie Hyatt and Nannie Bryant; Messrs. Ernest Harris and Sam Leslie.

"To Call Off Presents: R. A. Leslie.

"To Hand Presents to Mr. Leslie: Messrs. Oscar Bryant, Tom Epton and Andrew Cabiness.

"To Distribute Presents: Misses Ada Hyatt, Nettie Bryant, Mattie Reese, Annie Mae Nelson; Messrs. Gat Luck and Henry Reese.

"Santa Claus to Be Supplied." But what was there left for the jolly old man from the North Pole to do? Merely to sing out the wish that we echo today — MERRY CHRISTMAS.

Way Sought to Save Jobs at Chaffee

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — A representative from the Department of the Army told civilian workers at Ft. Chaffee today that every effort would be made to find new jobs for them as Chaffee is closed over a period of a year and a half.

Walter F. Meyers, chief of the Procedures and regulations Division of the Army's Civilian Personnel Office, talked to the 1,100 Chaffee civilian employees in two sessions at the post theater.

Meanwhile, in Fort Smith, Gov. Orval E. Faubus was meeting with Fort Smith business and civic leaders in a closed session to talk over plans for a campaign to keep Chaffee open.

Meyers said that by the end of January the Army will develop a phase-out plan for Chaffee and will list the jobs to be abolished and the personnel to be transferred. He said about 400 would get other jobs and 700 jobs would be eliminated.

But the Army will set up a Personnel Assistance Unit to work with industry in the area in an attempt to get new jobs for the 700 persons put out of jobs.

Relocation expenses will be paid for the 400 workers, Meyers said, if they are moved. Some will be kept at Chaffee with a small caretaker detachment. The Defense Department said about 150 would work with the 19th Corps, which administers the Army Reserve in Arkansas, Louisiana and Oklahoma.

Psycho Tests To Be Given Robt. Fennell

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A self-proclaimed social psychiatrist and avowed member of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee is due for psychiatric tests in the wake of his arrest on a charge of threatening to kill President Johnson.

Robert Beaty Fennell, 29, formerly of Sioux City, Iowa, was charged by the Secret Service Friday after police in nearby Berkeley found a note in his pocket which reportedly concluded:

Secret Servicemen said the note also stated, "unless Americans accept their political responsibility and abolish the office of LEADER we shall continue to abolish leaders."

Fennell spent nearly four months in a Cherokee, Iowa, mental hospital in 1959, said federal officers. He picketed the Sioux City Municipal Auditorium in October in support of racial intermarriage and free travel to Cuba.

Fennell told newsmen at his arraignment Friday that he was trying to re-enlist in the Air Force as a radar technician. He said he thought the notes were insufficient reason for his arrest.

"I write lots my things — and tear them up."

He was transferred to San Francisco County Jail in lieu of $5,000 bail and a hearing was set for Jan. 3 following the order for psychiatric tests.

Meanwhile, in Fort Worth, Tex., Russell McLarry was freed on $2,500 bail after his arrest Thursday on a charge of threatening President Kennedy the day before the President was assassinated in nearby Dallas.

McLarry, according to a Secret Service complaint, said he would be waiting with a gun to shoot the President when he neared Dallas' Trade Mart. The President didn't get that far.

McLarry denied distributing anti-Kennedy literature and said his shooting threat was said in a joking manner. He denied knowing accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, another avowed member of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee.

Publisher Asks for a New Trial

MORRILTON, Ark. (AP) — Gene Wirges, former publisher of the Morrilton Democrat, alleged in a petition for a new trial Thursday that a jury which awarded Conway County Judge Thomas W. Scott a $200,000 libel judgment against him was improperly selected.

Chancellor Paul X. Williams of Booneville, hearing the request on an exchange of circuits with Judge Wiley Bean, said Wirges contended the "entire panel was illegal."

Williams said Wirges petition alleged: That the jury foreman, John Henry Scroggins, was a business associate of Lt. Gov. Nathan Gordon, head of Scott's legal staff.

That one of the commissioners who picked the jury panel for the trial—Aubrey Walker — was ineligible because he had litigation pending in the court.

That Hugh Jones, director of the Morrilton Housing Authority, should not have been seated on the jury because his assistant, Roy Sims, was a jury commissioner and because Felver A. Rowell Jr., attorney for the authority, was a lawyer for Scott in the trial.

Walker, Sims and the other commissioner, T. O. Adams testified at the six-hour hearing Thursday that they were not under any pressure and did not receive advice on jury selection.

Gordon argued that Wirges' request for a new trial was not filed within the legal deadline of 15 days after the trial.

Wirges feuded with Conway County officials throughout the six years he owned the Democrat, but he lost the weekly newspaper recently when creditors foreclosed on a mortgage.

Parks Commission Hires Newsman

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Appointment of John Heuston, outdoor editor of the Arkansas Democrat, as travel writer for the state Publicity and Parks Commission was announced today by Commission Director Bob Evans.

Heuston will join the commission staff Jan. 16. He replaces Eula Wilson who is resigning to be married after five years on the job.

Heuston joined the Democrat staff three years ago from For-dyce where he worked for the weekly News Advocate.

Governor's Dad Praises Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP) — A tribute to the late President Kennedy by Sam Faubus of Combs, father of Gov. Orval E. Faubus, was placed in the Congressional Record Thursday by Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark.

The tribute was contained in a letter. Fulbright called it "one of the most succinct and eloquent I've seen."

It said: "I am stunned and bewildered. I don't seem to be able to realize that the bright-eyed, sandy-haired young man that greeted me with a smile and a warm handshake and told me he had received a nice letter from my daughter, Bonnie, in California only a few days ago, now lies murdered by the hand of an assassin."

"When history has rendered its verdict, it will place the name of John Fitzgerald Kennedy as one among the greatest presidents this country has had since the time of Abraham Lincoln. He has done more for peace and freedom in the three short years he has been president than any man in our nation's history."

"Children will read about John Fitzgerald Kennedy in history books for generations to come and men believing in liberty, justice and freedom will reverence his name throughout the entire world."

Hot Springs to Get New Industry

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — The president of a large manufacturer of aluminum doors announced at Hot Springs Thursday that his firm is building a 100,000-square-foot plant seven miles southeast of Hot Springs.

Joseph E. Zitomer of Detroit, Mich., said the new plant will employ 200 persons in its initial employment phase, and eventually will provide several hundred more jobs.

The plant is located on a 20-acre site in a planned 170-acre industrial park on U.S. Highway 270.

Zitomer said the plant and equipment will cost about $1.5 million and will be the most modern in the industry.

It will convert raw aluminum ingots and sheet glass into finished aluminum doors at the rate of several thousand a day. The facility will be operated by Arkansas, Inc., an Arkansas-chartered corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of General Capsule, Zitomer said.

Princess Has New Daughter

MADRID, Spain (AP) — A palace spokesman said Princess Sophie of Greece, 25, gave birth today to a daughter.

Had the child been a son, he would have been third in line after the father, Prince Juan Carlos de Borbon, for the now vacant throne of monarchist Spain.

The new baby was linked by royal bloodlines to many of the former crowned heads of Europe. Experts here said she was the 41st direct descendant of Emperor Charlemagne, the 13th of Queen Mary of Scotland, and the 10th of King Peter the Great of Russia.

Gen. Francisco Franco, the Spanish chief of state, and his wife were informed immediately of the birth and sent congratulations to the young parents.

Global System of Observation Is Planned

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration intends to work out a plan for a system of international observation posts that would be set up in Communist and Western countries to guard against the danger of surprise attack.

After consultation with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Allies on details of the proposed system, the plan is expected to be presented at the 17-nation disarmament conference due to meet at Geneva Jan. 21.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk told a news conference Friday that despite serious difficulties in the way of agreement with Moscow, "there may be some interest on the other side in these observation posts, and we think it would be worthwhile . . . to work out a system and see what it looks like."

Rusk said the NATO Allies in a conference at Paris earlier their week were in general agreement that the Western powers should keep trying to find ways of easing tensions between the Soviet block and the West.

The Western nations do not feel, he said, that the limited nuclear test-ban treaty made last summer represents "end of the trail" for East-West accords.

After an hour's meeting with President Johnson at the White house Friday morning, Rusk held a news conference at the State Department in the afternoon.

Rusk said the tragedy of President John F. Kennedy's assassination had worked as a kind of unifying element in the NATO meeting and he added that European officials had displayed great confidence in Johnson's leadership and were pleased by the way he had taken hold of his responsibilities as President.

Rusk made plain that in his view the chief result of the NATO Council session he had attended in Paris was the development of a broad consensus to continue probing for agreements with the Soviet Union. In this connection he emphasized the possibility of progress on measures "to provide safeguards against surprise attack."

This is an idea which has been discussed frequently in the East-West meetings. Soviet Premier Khrushchev spoke favorably of the proposal last summer after the limited nuclear test-ban treaty had been signed.

The Russians, however, have linked the observation-post suggestion with other possible measures such as the creation of nuclear-free zones in Central Europe and a limit on Eastern and Western forces in Central Europe.

Rusk said these are political questions which create "some real difficulties." He obviously regards the link suggested by the Russians as a potential barrier to accord.

Nevertheless, he said, "we are going ahead . . . to see what actually would make sense from the point of view of the manning of observation posts, the location of observation posts, what areas ought to be covered, and how an effective and efficient system could be in fact devised."

Suit Filed in Child Labor Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A suit filed Thursday in U.S. District Court asked for an injunction prohibiting a Lincoln County farmer from violating child labor provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

The suit, filed in the name of Secretary of Labor Willard Wirtz, alleged that Vernon King, who lives near Gould, employed five persons under the age of 16 as cotton pickers on or about Sept. 30.

DOROTHY DIX

SHE'S A SLAVEY!

By Helen Worden Erskine

Dear Helen: I am a 19-year-old college student madly in love with a beautiful girl of 16. Her father owns two houses, the one in which the family lives, another tha has been vacant four years.

He constantly turns down offers for it on the excuse that he wants to improve the place and thus get a higher rental. He makes the girl chip paint off the walls, scrub the floors, wash the windows and keep things tidy. The water being shut off, she has to lug in buckets of it for cleaning. She also must care for the grounds; mow the lawn, trim the hedges and weed the flower beds in summer, shovel snow in the winter. In doing all these heavy chores she has wrenched her back and is in pain. Her father says he is just trying to get out of working.

Her able-bodied brother, 13, could help but doesn't lift a hand; just spies on her at the father's orders. The mother, though knowing that her daughter is abused, won't sand up for her. While she watches TV my girl does the dishes, washes, irons, makes beds and tidies the house. Occasionally, she baby-sits but must turn over the money earned to her parents. She is literally a slavey. Though her grades are B plus her father and mother complain about her "poor" marks. Now my girl talks of running away. What's the answer? —Devoted

Dear Devoted: The description of your girl friend's life reads like something out of Charles Dickens. I doubt that you can intervene directly on her behalf. It would probably only make matters worse.

Your best bet is to give her plenty of moral support so that she will feel strong enough to stick up for her own rights. Running away won't solve her problem. She must finish school.

Suggest to her that she talk things over with her guidance counselor who may then be able to appeal to her parents for more humane treatment. Send

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

LBJ Sets Pattern on Conferences

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson says he will decide when and how to hold news conferences according to "what comes naturally."

What has come naturally to him so far is something between the news conferences of Presidents Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman and those of Presidents Dwight D. Eisenhower and John F. Kennedy.

Roosevelt and Truman met with newsmen—far oftener than Eisenhower and Kennedy—in their offices but what they said could seldom be quoted directly. Eisenhower and Kennedy held their conferences in full view of cameras—in Kennedy's case, before live television cameras—and what they said was the public record.

Johnson, like Roosevelt and Truman, has met twice with newsmen in his office, without benefit of television or radio, but, like Eisenhower and Kennedy, what he has said so far has been directly attributed to him.

When the mood seizes him, Johnson may meet the press before live television cameras. He has foreclosed nothing, promised nothing specific.

Asked what kind of conferences he planned to hold, he said: "Maybe it will be a meeting of this kind today; maybe a televised meeting tomorrow; approved a plan to issue $91 million of $30 par value, six percent collateral trust income, bonds and almost 850,000 shares of common stock. Rock Island stockholders would get one $30 bond, 0.2778 share of common stock and $5 for each share of Rock Island Stock if they agree to the merger. A previous Rock Island stockholder approval of a merger with Union Pacific railroad is pending in federal court because of a suit that delayed a proxy count.

Suit Against Urban Renewal

HARRISBURG, Ark. (AP)—A suit was filed in Poinsett Chancery Court Wednesday seeking to stop Trumann's urban renewal project.

The suit was filed by the Rev. Jess Adams, chairman of the Trumann Anti-Urban Renewal Association, and five members of the association's steering committee.

The suit asks that the court enjoin the city from carrying out an urban renewal project in a residential area.

It also contests the legality of actions taken by the city council and the Trumann Urban Renewal Agency in developing the project, for which a federal grant and loan have been obtained.

The suit asked that any documents "purported to create the Urban Renewal Agency and to establish and urban renewal plan" be declared void.

Adams contends that the people of Trumann don't want the project and that it should be put to a vote.

Negotiations for property for the project already are under way, the suit said. The project will involve improving some houses and razing others along with building new streets and making other improvements.

Kennedy's statements, since they were on television as he gave them, instantly were public property.

The appearance of Eisenhower and Kennedy on television had a great public advantage. All the people of the nation could watch their president in action and form their own judgments. But the meetings with the press had a couple of disadvantages. In the first place, they were huge affairs.

Thus they included newsmen with questions of a minor nature and of interest to only one locality, and perhaps a small one. Sometimes they were the kind that could have been answered by a call to a White House aide.

The transcript of the much smaller Johnson conferences, without the benefit of television, shows the reporters were able to concentrate on questions of national and international interest. The questions were short and pointed.

Because Johnson went to real length Wednesday to answer some of the questions, there was only time to ask him 20. Kennedy used to average between 25 and 30 questions and answers in about the same time.

Collects Stamps for School Bus

LITTLE ROCK (KAP)—A Fort Smith woman who is collecting trading stamps to buy a bus for a Catholic school says she has 1,800 books of stamps and still needs 2,700.
Mrs. Kay Holland was in Little Rock today with the bus, which is on loan from a bus company until she can get enough stamps to pay for it.
Mrs. Holland has parked the bus at shopping centers and on streets in Fort Smith, Hot Springs and Little Rock and asked passersby for books of stamps or loose stamps they might have in their pockets.
"You'd be surprised how many people have a few loose stamps," she said. "They've made a lot of books."
Mrs. Holland is taking any kind of stamps and trading them for the bus she needs.
The bus is for St. Mary's Mission School at Jenny Lind south of Fort Smith.

Says Texas Very Sound Grid Team
ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—The man who sizes up Navy football opponents and helps find ways to beat them says No. 1-ranked Texas is one of the most fundamentally sound teams he has ever seen.

Sleeve Belichick, assistant coach and chief scout, said he would rate the Longhorns with the 1960 Washington team which Navy upset 15-14, Army's 1958 team and "the Tennessee teams of Gen. (Robert) Neyland's heyday" as the best in his memory.

"This is a team that stands out," Belichick told newsmen at Navy Thursday. "From a fundamental point of view, they do anything — except possibly punting — as well as any team I ever saw."

Belichick saw unbeaten Texas in its season finale against Texas A&M, when second-ranked Navy felt it would be going to the Cotton Bowl, and he has been dissecting the films of six Texas games for the Navy coaching staff and players.

"They block well and they rarely miss a tackle," Belichick said. "You don't see them busting signals, jumping offside or in motion. Their penalties are at a minimum."

"They control the ball and they move it. Their basic offense is the old Don Faurot and Bud Wilkinson split-T, with a few refinements, and they run it better than those two masters."

This will be quite a test for Navy's offense, which hasn't allowed to score less than three or more touchdowns per game, Belichick believes.

"He makes their attack go," the Navy scout said. "He's their best. They use him when they want to run but he's not the passer that (Tommy) Wade is."

Head Coach Wayne Hardin, who believes his second-ranked Navy team can take Texas, added this footnote to Belichick's report: "They're not overrated. We've got to play our best to beat them."

Comeback of Year Honors to Charger
SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Only Paul Lowe and his coach knew until today that the flashy San Diego Charger halfback fractured a leg in the first regular game of this season.

"But I was determined not to let it keep me out," Lowe declared after making the disclosure in an interview.

He had been asked how he felt about being chosen the American Football League's Comeback Player of the Year by an Associated Press panel of sports writers and sports broadcasters.

"It's a pretty inspiring thing," he replied, "as inspiring, I'd say as being named Player of the Year. I am deeply honored."

He said he was also pleased that his teammate, veteran quarterback Tobin Rote, had been named Player of the Year.

Lowe, who makes great use of his speed and agility, was out of action all last season because of a broken arm that required surgery to mend.

This year it was the leg that threatened to put him on the shelf again.

He said a hairline fracture was discovered in his left leg after the opening game with meeting Friday.

The resolution already has been adopted by the Legislative Council and will be forwarded to the President as expressing the feeling of the Arkansas Legislature.

Bobcats Will Meet Kirby in Tourney Finals
By CARTER HARDAGE
Hope Star Sports Editor
Due to complications brought on by the inclement weather and dangerous driving conditions, Magnolia had to drop out of the Hope Holiday Tournament, which left the semi-finals of the boy's division a forfeit to Kirby.

Although the semi-finals were to be held last night, they were snowed out. Plans were then changed to make the semi-finals tonight, and have the finals Monday. But Magnolia was unable to make arrangements for play on that day, granting that they beat Kirby.

Nevertheless, this threw a monkey wrench at the girls semi-finals. It has been decided that the girls can go ahead and complete their only game in the second round this afternoon.

The Lady Cats and Spring Hill will meet at 1:00.

The winner of that game will have to face Kirby in the finals tonight at 7:00. The boys' game will follow at 8:15, between the Bobcats and Kirby.

Come out and support the Bobcats.

Guards Are Blamed for Explosions
TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP)—Four Alabama National Guardsmen have been charged with touching off minor explosions near the University of Alabama while on federal duty to uphold court-ordered desegregation of the school.

Authorities say more arrests are expected.

Three blasts occurred last month—two Nov. 16 and one Nov. 19. All were near a dormitory housing Negro student Vivian Malone, who was admitted under federal court orders along with James A. Hood in June. Hood later withdrew.

The men arrested Thursday were with the last units still on duty after President Kennedy federalized the entire Alabama Guard during a showdown with Gov. George Wallace.

All troops were demobilized Nov. 20, the day after the last explosion. No one was hurt in any of the explosions.

The men were rounded up during the late afternoon and night. The first man arrested was 2nd Lt. James T. Perkins, 27, of Holt, Ala., a suburb of Tuscaloosa. He later posted $5,000 bond.

Police identified two of the others as Sgt. Norman R. Daniel of Fairfield, Ala., a suburb of Birmingham, and Cpl. James T. Maxwell, 27, of Tuscaloosa. Maxwell also posted bond.

The name of the fourth man was not available immediately.

Perkins and Maxwell were charged with the first Nov. 16 detonation. The warrant against them said they set off dynamite or some other explosive in or near the home of Rovilla Lewis, who lives close to Mary Burke Hall, where Miss Malone lives.

Daniel is charged with the Nov. 19 blast, which occurred about three blocks from the dormitory.

Perkins, contacted at home after he posted bond, said: "I can't think right to comment at this time."

Authorities declined to speculate about the motive for the bombings.

A novel about BENEDICT ARNOLD by PHILIP VAIL

THE STORY: After bickering, Benedict and Ethan Allen agree to join forces to attack Ticonderoga. They surprise a sentry, enter the fort and catch the garrison asleep. The captain surrenders to Ethan Allen.

XII
Members of Benedict's regiment began to arrive at Ticonderoga four days after the fall of the citadel where they soon outnumbered the Green Mountain Boys who found garrison life too dull and returned to their frontier farms. A smaller fort on the lake at Crown Point was captured from the British, and Benedict promptly issued an order to all troops in the area, insisting that he was the sole commander. Ethan Allen, who remained at Ticonderoga, stubbornly declared that he was the commander. Both men wrote long letters to the patriot councils in Massachusetts and Connecticut, defending their claims.

Still later the two rivals were outraged when a mail courier arrived with newspaper accounts of the capture of Ticonderoga. They were astonished to read that Colonel Easton had been the heroic leader of the expedition. Allen immediately wrote long letters of protest to his sponsors in Hartford, while Benedict, who was now corresponding regularly with Philip Schuyler, sent the newspapers to the general at Albany but wisely added no comment of his own.

And on June 24 he was stunned when Col. Benjamin Hinman of Massachusetts arrived with orders naming him as commander of the area and relegating Benedict to the position of deputy chief.

Benedict, announcing that he would not serve as second-in-command to anyone, resigned his commission and departed the following day for Albany. Philip Schuyler, a distinguished veteran of the French and Indian War, had just been named a major general of the Continental line. Benedict wanted his advice and help.

"I must apologize for my appearance, General," he said, "but my uniform was made before I left New Haven this spring, and the tailor was accustomed to making clothing for Redcoats. I've had no time to have another made for me."

Schuyler smiled benignly. "If I have any influence with General Washington and the Congress, I will see that you are not available immediately."

Perkins and Maxwell were charged with the first Nov. 16 detonation. The warrant against them said they set off dynamite or some other explosive in or near the home of Rovilla Lewis, who lives close to Mary Burke Hall, where Miss Malone lives.

Daniel is charged with the Nov. 19 blast, which occurred about three blocks from the dormitory.

Perkins, contacted at home after he posted bond, said: "I can't think right to comment at this time."

Authorities declined to speculate about the motive for the bombings.

Quarries of whetstones from fifteen to forty feet deep, from ten to thirty feet wide, and from one hundred to three hundred feet long are found in Carland and Hot Spring counties.

"Of course, sir."
"You'll soon be a member of the Continental high command, so you have a right to know our general scheme. Washington is increasing the pressure on the garrison at Boston. Gage is isolated there — we held him in check this past month when he tried to break out into the open. Tory sympathizers think we lost the Battle of Breed's Hill, but in my opinion we won it."

"I'm going to Eddie Haygood's birthday party tomorrow."

"I didn't want to go but he talked me into it. He also talked me into bringing him a gift."

"Eddie Haygood must be a very persuasive boy."

"That he is... that he is!"

"Captain Miles Standish still feels he was somehow double-crossed!"

Resolution to Support Johnson
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Legislative Joint Auditing Committee will consider a resolution pledging support to President Johnson at its regular monthly meeting Friday.

The resolution already has been adopted by the Legislative Council and will be forwarded to the President as expressing the feeling of the Arkansas Legislature.

The Audit Committee also will consider audit reports on eight state agencies, including the Education Department.

GOD WITH US

...this Christmas, in Bethlehem of Judea, in America and throughout the world. It is Hallelujah! And the bright star of hope has never shone brighter as we commemorate the birth of our Lord. The shepherd keeps watch o'er his flock as multiplied millions prepare to break the cover from gifts made possible through thought and treasure of others. As carols roll out across the night breeze in reverence to His name, may we never forget to thank God for Jesus, and for liberty and freedom to worship the Christ Child. His "name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace."

Merry Christmas to All

THE CHURCH in You

You in the CHURCH

THE CHURCHES OF THIS COMMUNITY ARE THE ONLY INSTITUTIONS WHICH HAVE AS THEIR MAIN FUNCTION, THE TRANSFORMING OF HUMAN LIVES. THEY ARE THE SIGN BOARDS POINTING THE WAY TO GOD.

Sponsors of these messages urge faithful church support. Through these pages the appeal is for all men to stand up and be counted . . . to combat Communism on all fronts . . . to be faithful to God.

OUR PASTORS ARE GOD'S SERVANTS WHO CALL THE SIGNALS AGAINST THE ORGANIZED FORCES OF EVIL. THEY INVITE YOU TO ENLIST ON THE SIDE FOR GOD . . .
